

The Dawn of the Soul

Understanding the Spiritual Essence of Eid al-Fitr

MISBAH

A Month of Orbiting the Moon of God

For an entire month, we engaged with the Holy Quran, fasted through the days, and whispered prayers in the nights.

The Fast Begins

The Nights of Destiny

The Eid Crescent

Where was this 30-day
journey taking our souls?

Returning to Our Original Light

Ramadan brings our souls back to their pure, original state—our Fitrah. This is the natural, pure love and recognition of Allah that we were all born with.

The Process: Fasting, Quran, and prayer act as the polish for the soul.

The Result: The soul returns to its original, pure state of recognizing its Creator.

فِطْرَتَ اللَّهِ الَّتِي فَطَرَ النَّاسَ عَلَيْهَا

“The original nature [Fitrah] of Allah upon which He has created mankind...” (Surah Ar-Rum, 30:30)

A Secret Invitation for the Night of Eid

When the soul is polished and pure,
where does it travel on the night of Eid?
Imam Sadiq (as) revealed a special secret: the pure heart visits Karbala.

Whoever visits the grave of Al-Hussain (as) on any of these three nights, Allah forgives their past and future sins.”

— Imam Sadiq (as) [Kamil al-Ziyarat, Vol 1, Pg 180]

The Three Nights of Infinite Mercy

Night of Eid al-Fitr

(The end of our fasting journey)

Night of Eid al-Adha

(The festival of sacrifice)

Night of Mid-Sha'ban

(The birth of our 12th Imam)

The Ultimate Reward: Total forgiveness of all past and future sins by Allah (swt) for the visitor of Imam Hussain (as).

Distance Cannot Stop a Pure Heart

Even if we are thousands of miles away from Karbala, our voices are heard perfectly.

Congratulations to those who, even from far away, became the Zair (visitors) of Moula Hussain (AS) during this holy month! Special forgiveness is granted to those whose hearts traveled when their bodies could not.

The End of the Night of Separation

We said our hearts would be in longing for you,
Our eyes hoping to look toward you...
The Eid of Ramadan has come, but O Moon,
The true Eid of our hearts is seeing your face.

True Eid is not just the end of fasting; it is the end of the dark
night of separation
from our Imam.

Our Hands Raised to the Sky

O Creator of the Heavens, by the right of Fatima (sa), hasten the reappearance of your representative!

يا فاطِرِ بِحَقِّ فَاطِمَةَ، عَجَّلْ لَوْلِيكَ الْفَرَجَ

O Allah, send blessings upon Fatima, her father, her husband, her sons, and the secret entrusted to her, by the number of what Your knowledge encompasses.

اللَّهُمَّ صَلِّ عَلَى فَاطِمَةَ وَأَبِيهَا وَبَعْلِهَا وَبَنِيهَا وَسِرِّ الْمُسْتَوْدَعِ فِيهَا بِعَدَدِ مَا أَحَاطَ بِهِ عِلْمُكَ

A festive Eid Mubarak greeting card. The background is a warm gradient from light yellow at the top to a deeper gold at the bottom, scattered with numerous small, five-pointed gold stars. A large, ornate, gold-colored frame with a repeating geometric pattern surrounds the central text. The text is centered within this frame.

Eid Mubarak to You and Your Families!

May your fasting be accepted, your distant Ziyarat be recorded, and your prayers for the reappearance of our Imam be answered.
